

WE DON'T JUST GIVE YOU LEADS, WE ESTABLISH RELATIONSHIPS.

Social LeadGen is an outsourced lead-generation service that leverages ComLinked's social connections to generate a monthly stream of pre-qualified leads without using telemarketing, email marketing, or content marketing. We find the right decision makers and identify companies interested in your products and services – it's that simple.

Save Time

We do the heavy lifting of finding the right companies interested in your products and services through our social connections.

Save Money

Social LeadGen is a scalable, outsourced service that significantly reduces your costs instead of hiring your own resources.

Increase ROI

Generate higher returns on your marketing dollars by getting qualified leads that actually turn into sales.

HOW IT WORKS

- Our team of experts will develop a customized pitch about your company and its products.
- We then mine ComLinked's connections and engage the right companies to present your solution.
- Once we qualify interested companies, we connect you directly to decision makers for your Sales team to close the opportunity.

WHAT MAKES IT DIFFERENT?

- We use our ComLinked's social connections to find the right decision makers interested in your products and services.
- We do not use telemarketing, email marketing or content marketing to generate our leads.
- More effective lead generation model through social marketing, resulting to higher close rates.

OUR CUSTOMERS SAY...

"ComLinked's Social LeadGen service delivered 780% ROI within 30 days of the campaign. It is a unique service using social connections to deliver pre-qualified leads from companies genuinely interested in our software."

David Winterhalter, VP of Marketing, Centage
